WorkflowOne Promotes Tom Rizzi to Chief Sales Officer

Dayton, Ohio, September 17, 2010— WorkflowOne, a leading provider of print management, marketing and distribution services announced today that Thomas Rizzi has been promoted to the position of Chief Sales Officer, reporting to Dean Truitt, Chief Executive Officer. Previously, Rizzi held the position of Divisional Vice President and prior, Vice President of promotional products having returned to WorkflowOne in March of 2010.

“In a short while, Tom has once again proven his leadership and broad set of senior sales qualities for driving profitable business with new and existing clients,” said Dean Truitt, CEO of WorkflowOne. “We are positive that he will continue to excel in his new position, as he’s done in the past and contribute to the company’s growth and leadership position within the industry.”

Prior to his return, Rizzi was Vice President of strategic sales for WorkflowOne, where he led sales efforts focused on enterprise and corporate accounts as well as strategic alliances. Prior to that time, he served three years as vice president of sales for WorkflowOne’s southwest division, which covered eight states in the southwest and western U.S. Rizzi also has more than 20 years of sales and sales management experience with multinational companies in the print and packaging industries, including Anchor Glass Container Corp., Riverwood International, Graphic Packaging Corp. and Renaissance Mark. Rizzi earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pa.
